

Keep an eye out for the following symptoms. They could be signs of a potential health problem, so call or visit your doctor if they occur.

- Excessive vomiting or diarrhea
- Swelling in your face, fingers, and feet
- Bleeding or leaking of fluid from the vagina
- Strong cramps
- Headache, backache or stomachache that doesn't go away
- Blurred vision or spots in front of your eyes
- Pain or burning when you urinate
- Less movement by the baby than usual