

Novant Health Charlotte Orthopedic Hospital 2021 Fact Sheet

Overview

Novant Health Charlotte Orthopedic Hospital, a department of Novant Health Presbyterian Medical Center, has 48 beds and is the Charlotte region's only orthopedic hospital and one of a few of its kind in the country. In 2018, Novant Health completed a major renovation and expansion project for Charlotte Orthopedic Hospital, which included seven state-of-the-art inpatient operating rooms and one procedural room, as well as an outpatient surgery center with five additional operating rooms and two procedure rooms. This facility was designed to integrate the entire patient experience from a pre-operative surgical wellness clinic, to operating rooms equipped with robotic and artificial intelligence technologies, to inpatient acute care and physical therapy services to help patients recover after their surgery.

At Charlotte Orthopedic Hospital, our doctors and team members provide a full range of orthopedic services, from advanced diagnostic imaging and innovative treatments to rehabilitation services. We are part of Novant Health, a three-state integrated network of physician clinics, outpatient facilities and hospitals that delivers a seamless and convenient healthcare experience to our communities. The Novant Health network consists of more than 2,300 physicians and over 35,000 employees that provide care at nearly 800 locations, including 15 medical centers and hundreds of outpatient facilities and physician clinics. Headquartered in Winston-Salem, North Carolina, Novant Health is committed to making health care remarkable for patients and communities, serving more than 6 million patients annually.

By bringing together world-class technology and clinicians to provide quality care, we are committed to creating a healthcare experience that is simpler, more convenient and more affordable so patients can focus on getting better and staying healthy.
