Serving our communities

Novant Health is continuously investing time, energy and resources to provide communities with remarkable care that puts the patient first. The health of the communities we serve is our priority and a commitment we take very seriously. Our community benefit in 2022 equaled $1.5 billion, including $212.6 million in financial assistance. Our outreach programs range from free wellness initiatives, health screenings, support groups and educational information to enrollment assistance for government-funded health programs.

Financial assistance

Novant Health is committed to providing high-quality care delivered with dignity and respect to all patients regardless of their ability to pay.

Novant Health provides free care, also known as financial assistance. As with most financial aid programs, our financial assistance guidelines use the income levels set each year by the federal government to define poverty. Our eligibility threshold provides assistance to patients if their household income is at or below 300 percent of the federal poverty level.

Our financial assistance program covers about 90 percent of all uninsured patients. For the other 10 percent who do not qualify because their incomes are above the guidelines, we offer a discount on their bill that is similar to a managed care contract discount. That means that patients in this category will not pay more than what an average insurance company may pay.

Novant Health has a catastrophic benefit for patients whose balance is determined to be above their means, even if they have health insurance. With this program, a Novant Health financial counselor evaluates patients' individual situations to determine if they qualify for a discount on the remaining balance or a full write-off.

The North Carolina Justice Center published a report entitled "How Charitable are North Carolina hospitals?" In that February 2010 document, the Justice Center stated that Novant Health has the most sound and clear charity care policy of any hospital system in North Carolina, a policy that recognizes the realities of modern family finances. The Justice Center report also recognized Novant Health and several other healthcare organizations for their openness and accountability in making our charity and financial assistance programs publicly available online.
